

4TH QUEENSLAND BUSHFOODS CONFERENCE

“BUSHFOOD PLANTS TO PLATES - CHALLENGES & SUSTAINABILITY”

Date: 21st September, 2013

Venue: Environment Bldg 1

Lecture Theatre N55_0.06

Registration Fee:

$30.00 includes Meals

or $40.00 includes QBA

Membership & meals.

Contact: Prof. Rod Drew

r.drew@griffith.edu.au

Dr Narendra Nand

narendranand@hotmail.com

Mob: 0432 036 537

SCHOOL OF BIOMOLECULAR & PHYSICAL SCIENCES (BPS)

PROGRAMME

8.30 am Registration

Session 1 : Dr Narendra Nand (GU)

9.05 am Welcome & Introduction- Prof. Rod Drew (GU)

9.10 am Keynote address- Warren Wilmott

CEO - 7 -Eleven Food Stores, Australia

9.50 am Dr Ian Cock (GU). The potential of selected Australian bushfoods for the prevention of rheumatoid arthritis

10.15 am Sammy Ringer (QBA). Native meets market Are we still wild?

10.30 am Morning Tea Break

Sessions 2: Tima Racule (GU)

11.00 am Prof. Melissa Fitzgerald (UQ). Bushfoods: Integration into Science Teaching

11.20 am Doug Brownlow (QBA). A Grower's Tale

11.45 am Dr Robin Roberts (GU). Bushfoods: Plants to Plates– Developing the Opportunities

12.05 pm Joseph Sirdaarta (GU). Syzygium australe and Syzygium leuhmannii fruit extracts as antibacterial food agents

12.25 pm Sabine Weinand (QBA). Wild Foods

12.45 pm Lunch Break

Session 3: Sheryl Backhouse (Secretary -QBA)

1.30 pm Assoc Prof - Slade Lee (SCU). Safeguarding Traditional Knowledge in Commercialisation of native plants

2.00 pm Veronica Winnett (GU). The potential of Tasmanian Pepper as a natural food preservative

2.15 pm Nathan Jamieson (GU). The functional food potential of selected Australian bushfoods with high antioxidant contents.

2.30 pm Dr.Narendra Nand (GU). Diversification for sustainability

3.00 pm Discussion (Rod Drew / Robin Roberts)

Research & Development Cultures Process

Pre-registration

narendranand@hotmail.com

sheryl.backhouse@bigpond.com

R.S.V.P. 16 September, 2013